General Information

The credibility of its reaching out to the remotest people by virtue of availability of their products to them was the greatest triumph of Late Haji Abdur Razzaque Ansari.

The growth in the improvement of the basic amenities of the weavers of the area through the committed efforts of weavers society has been considered as outstanding achievement of the state. The aim of the founder was to stop the migration of the patients from the most backward region of the country to other metro center for all major ailments. With the establishment of ARAM weavers Hospital, the promoters have been able to accomplish the vision of the legendary with the state of art medical facilities in the hospital.

After crating a name for itself in the field of health care, Mr. Manzoor Ahmad Ansari S/o Late Abdur Razzaque Ansari ventured into the field of education as he realized that education is the only way where he can reach to the masses and help the poors, tribals, minorities and other down trodden people of this state to stand in their feet and make a name for themselves by acquiring high and proper education and this "Shine Abdur Razzaque Ansari Institute of Health Education & Research Center" came into existence.

Shine group of Institutions owes its existence to the initiative, enthusiasm and inspiration of Late Haji Abdur Razzaque Ansari who had a vision to provide all round education that will help in character building and would produce citizens useful to society and nation building.

Every year his vision and thought is being taken forward and every endeavor is made to bring in new courses for the deprived students of Jharkhand state.

He and another dignitaries and academicians who are stalwarts in their field and are highly acclaimed in the profession and trade join hands to take this forward.

His legacy is being taken forward by his son Sri Manzoor Ahmad Ansari and now by his grandson Sri Arif Ahmad Ansari Shine is the pride of the local people. No doubt, Shine occupies a unique position in our state, In every sphere of life whether social, political, academic, health, cultural, economic scientific and technological developments, it holds a significant value. The motto of shine welfare society is 'option for the poor people' i.e to work for the upliftment of the socially deprived people of the state.

Shine Group of Institutions (SGI) provides vocational oriented education through which student contemplates the past, grasps the present and approaches the future,. As the motto of the shine welfare society is option for the poor people, 10% of seats is reserved for the students who fall under B.P.L. category as per government norms and provisions.

As we are in the third Millennium, it will be our endeavor to inculcate into our students the very essence of life and more importantly the ethics which make a world of difference to the quality of life that we see around us.

Times have changed and so we must move with the time keeping in mind the requirements and needs of the hour. Education in this Hi-Tech age seems to be losing its values and seems to be concentrating on the mundane things that life has to offer. The very aim of education should be used for the development of character, stimulation of interest and maintaining of one's mental vision. These are essential values saying tat' Man lives not only by bread alone'.

It is today that we crate the world of the future.... If we do not change our direction, we are likely to end up where we are headed.

Nurses are also doing other duties like health awareness, community development etc. and at the same time they have to gather more knowledge from other knowledge world and day by day development in the different part of the country and out of the country. Purpose for education tour for student nurse/s is not different as described above.
